

Life Without Diets

Your path to weight freedom

Imagine What Life Would Be Like

- No scales, diets, and counting calories.
- Freedom from the frustration of losing and gaining weight.
- No more emotional eating and feeling out of control with food.
- Enjoying food without guilt and restrictions.
- Regaining your energy, stamina, and health.
- Finally, a path to long-term health and wellbeing.

1. Initial 90-Minute Nutrition Therapy Session

- Meet virtually with your personal dietitian.
- Assess your current health goals, taking inventory of your eating patterns, habits, food choices, and nutrient intake.
- Start to build a plan that is personalized to your lifestyle and your health needs.
- Practice awareness of hunger and fullness cues, emotional triggers and mindless eating.
- Reject negative self-talk and become more mindful and aware of eating patterns.
- Connect with your dietitian for support and guidance.
